SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S GENERAL HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE AND PRACTICE OF MUSIC.

Price 35s., bound in Two Volumes. Supplementary Volume of Portraits, 14s., in paper covers; 16s., bound in cloth.

IN the present age, when public attention is so extensively directed towards the study and practice of Music, it has been thought that a new edition of SIR JOHN HAWKINS'S valuable HISTORY OF MUSIC would prove peculiarly acceptable, as being by far the best history of the art extant. It was formerly a very scarce and expensive book, but the present price, 35s. bound in two volumes, places it within the reach of both amateur and professional musicians. The large subject of a History of Music, embracing heterogeneous matter, and the result of wide research, makes it a storehouse to which a definite clue is required to give ready access. This will be found in the new and compendious Indexes, which have been carefully compiled, and added to the present edition. The whole matter occupies more than 1000 large pages of close print, with more than 200 wood-cuts, and provides the material for many a long winter evening's amusement by their perusal.

Reduced Price, 8d.

EDWARD F. RIMBAULT.

In Shilling Numbers.

Beautifully printed on superior paper, stitched in an Illustrated Cover, each Part containing from Forty to Fifty Pages of Music of the highest character in its several departments.

During the last few years the love of Music has spread so rapidly amongst all classes, that the period seems to have arrived for the issue of a cheap publication which shall embrace all the qualities requisite for the full enjoyment of this delightful art. The great success which has attended the cheap reprints of literary works has induced the Publishers to turn their attention to the carrying out of similar results with regard to the popularising of music; and they feel confident, from their long experience in the matter, and the large number of valuable Copyright Works at their disposal, they shall be enabled to do this, not only to the satisfaction of the Musician and the Musical Amateur, but that, by placing a fine collection of Music (hitherto attainable only at a large cost) at a price within the reach of all classes of purchasers, they shall confer a boon on the public which cannot fail to be recognised.
